—Janesville Lodge No. 55, A. F. and A. M., assemblies in regular semi-monthly communication this evening at Masonic hall.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32—regular weekly meeting this evening—hall in the Judd block, North Main street.

—City Treasurer Blount is rapidly recovering from his recent severe attack of pneumonia. He will be at his office in a day or two.

—Polo Tuesday night, Racine vs. Janesville. Both clubs will play their best men and the game will be a very interesting one.

—The condition of Engineer A. J. Tripp remains about the same as previously reported, he being very low indeed. He is reported as resting quite easy last night.

—Candidates for the municipal offices are beginning to show themselves. At this time some good men are being talked of in connection with some of the important places.

—Considerable country produce was marketed to-day in this city, and quite a number of loads of tobacco were noticed on the streets, being brought in for delivery at the warehouses.

—Beloit Free Press: Mr. Allen Hurley had two fingers cut off and his left hand badly cut with a buzz saw, while sawing wood on the farm of Halvor Cleophas, of Newark, Friday evening.

—Mrs. George Debs to-day received at the hands of Mr. Charles E. Church the sum of one thousand dollars, being the amount of an insurance policy paid by her late husband in the Masonic Benefit Association, of Madison.

—Richard Barry and John Foley, two young men from Monterey, managed to drown their troubles in the flowing bow Saturday night, and this morning they appeared before Judge Patten in 'consequence. They were fined five dollars each and being unable to pay were sentenced to ten days in jail.

—Edward Fischer, a jeweler of Evansville, left for parts unknown last Thursday night. On Saturday afternoon Sheriff Hawthorn closed his store by writ of attachment sworn out by his brother, of Jefferson, who furnished the money to start him in business. Mr. Fischer's principal creditors are in Chicago.

—The sale of the Hon. C. G. Williams' property on North Jackson street, was definitely decided on Saturday afternoon and on the first of April Mr. and Mrs. Will Ascraft will take possession. It is thought that Dr. and Mrs. Hodge may become residents of the third ward, although no definite arrangements have been made.

—The Lowell Literary club will hold its opening meeting in the parlors of A. Souls church, Tuesday evening, at 7.30. Programme—A talk on Tennyson. Selections read by Mrs. J. B. Day and Miss Lillian DeLong. Singing by Miss Charlotte Priobard. All interested in mental improvement are cordially invited.

—The March number of The Pansy is as bright and winning as its flower-name sake. It has good serials from Pansy herself and from Margaret Sidney, while every branch of good reading is represented, history, natural science, travel, behavior and morals, all in the most entertaining style. Pansy is only ten cents a number. D. Lothrop & Co., Boston, Mass.

—Manager Valentine received a telegram to-day from Mr. Jackeson I. Case announcing that the Racine polo team would arrive to-morrow at 5.50 p. m. Saturday night they played the Gatesburg, the game lasting two hours, and resulting in a score of 3 to 2 in favor of the Gatesburgs. The Racines are playing a very strong game of late, and the contest here to-morrow night will be a home one.

—On Saturday occurred the forty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Fellows, of the second ward, and the day, or rather the evening, was duly celebrated by the assembling of a company of friends at their home on Bluff street, where a few hours were pleasantly spent in sociability, choice refreshments being served, and the guest, upon retiring, leaving appropriate tokens of the occasion as reminders of the happy occasion and gathering.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Knippenburg, of the second ward, has been darkened by the presence of the death messenger. This morning at 9 o'clock, their daughter Laura DeLoach, aged 9 years and 9 months, was summoned from the earthly home to her home beyond the bounds of time. During her brief sickness of less than a week, while suffering intensely, she gave evidence of christian fortitude and seemed fully prepared for the final summons. The sorrow stricken family will share the sympathy of many friends in the hour of their bereavement.

—'Ajax,' a correspondent in Sunday morning's Chronicle, ought to "read up a little on the law governing elections." By the time the votes are canvassed, on Tuesday evening, April 6th, he will learn that the candidate for any office having a plurality of the votes cast for the office, is that number only two out of a vote of two thousand, will be declared elected. Therefore, we advise "Ajax" not to "cast" his votes in the manner indicated, but on the other hand work to elect the best men in the city. In this case Ajax must remember that his great prototype defied the gods (in this country the people) and in consequence was tumbled into the boiling surge, and never more heard of. A word to the wise ought to be enough.

—James Murray, a young man who hails from Monterey, is now a prisoner because of an assault that he made on Mrs. E. Burke, of the first ward, last Saturday night. Mrs. Burke was on her way to the Salvation Army meetings, and while waiting at the corner of Milwaukee street and Center avenue for a friend, she was accosted by Murray, who used insulting language, and grayed her by the the shoulder. She broke away

... him, and being joined by her friend, they proceeded toward town followed by Murray. After going a little distance he caught up with them and again grasping Mrs. Barkle's shoulder he dealt her a severe blow on the head. He left them soon afterwards and she fleeing Marshal Hogan complained of the assault and had the young man arrested.

—There were two funerals at St. Patrick's church this morning the Rev. Father McGinnity officiating at both. One was that of Mrs. Mary Kirk, of the fifth ward, who died Saturday night. She had lived a good life and at a ripe old age she went to join her husband who died a few years ago. The other coffin contained the remains of Maggie Clarke, the fifteen year old daughter of Mrs. Bridget Clarke of Cherry street, who also died Saturday evening. She had been sick quite a short time and her death was quite a surprise to her friends. It is seldom that such sight is seen as was presented at the church this morning. Lying side by side were the bodies of a young girl taken off in the flower of her strength and that of one who had run the race of life and had passed to her reward after the flight of many years. There were many friends of both present and many tears were dropped over the lifeless forms before they were borne away to their final resting place.

TRY FAILED TO APPEAR.

The Milwaukeees did not fill their Engagement—a Game Between the Riveriders and the Reserves.

It was expected that there would be a game at the rink Saturday night between the Milwaukeees and the Riveriders. While in Milwaukee Friday afternoon Manager Valentine had made an engagement with the league team of that city and as nothing had been heard from since, it was of course supposed they would come. The train came in, however, and no polo club, so the game had to be declared off. It was announced that the first and second teams would play for the best three goals in five and that those who desired could have their money refunded at the door. Some availed themselves of the privilege but a majority stayed to see the game. A few minutes of play showed that the teams were evenly matched for the first two goals were made by the reserves. After that they rather won the pieces and the remaining three goals were made with ease by the Riveriders. A feature of the game was the play of McGinley and O'Hara in goal. They stood up well against the battering of Corrigan and Sherry, and were loudly cheered several times. The positions of the men were:

FIRST TEAM. Sherry, ... Ruckers Corrigan, ... Point Schubler, ... Goal Referee, A. M. Valentine	SECOND TEAM. Wyle, ... Campbe Hanson, ... Hauso McGinley, ... Goal O'Hara, ... Ha

Before this game the printers and shoemakers crossed sticks, and for thirty minutes they chased each other over the surface while their ball went wherever happened to feel like. Only one goal was made, that being credited to the shoemakers. An oyster supper was afterward served to the victorious poloists by their few fortunate rivals.

Personal.

—Mrs. James Kennedy, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. N. Vankirk for several days, returned to her home in Chicago to-day.

—Miss Nellie Harrie, of the second ward, has just closed her winter school at Johnstown, and returned to the city. She will resume her school after the spring vacation.

—Mr. Wm. Turner and Mr. A. Dioken, son, of Harmony, started this morning for Southern Kansas, where they intend to locate, engaging in the lumber business. Success to them.

—On the 27th of this month Misses Eliza and Ellen, amiable and accomplished daughters of Adam Holt, our esteemed townsman and genial host of the Railroad hotel, will sail from New York per Canada steamer Servia, for an extended tour in Europe. England, their old home will claim considerable of their time, but a visit to many places of historical and other interest on the continent is also contemplated. In common with their many friends we wish them a safe and pleasant journey and trust that they will both receive and enjoy the benefits they anticipate from it.

THE CHURCHES.

What Was Done in the Houses of Worship Yesterday.

Mrs. Stacy Gives Another Reading.—
The Beginning of Lent.

TRINITY CHURCH.

Yesterday was the Sunday before Lent and a very appropriate sermon was preached by the pastor, the Rev. J. I. Conover, D. D. His text was a part of I Corinthians, xii, 13: "The greatest of these is charity." The speaker said that charity means love, and is greater than faith and hope because these two are only means to reach Heaven while love is found as an important element there. Love your neighbors; for if a man does not love his neighbors whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen. A Christian charity should not stop at relieving the bodily wants of the poor, there are spiritual wants that should also be attended to. The sermon was an excellent one and was listened to with great interest.

For some time past men have been working on the interior of the church and yesterday was the first Sunday since the decorations were finished. It now presents a very tasteful and pleasing appearance. The auditorium being finished in different shades of brown with lines of blue and gold to give more life, while the chancel is finished in a small pattern that is very effective.

The following will be the order of services at Trinity Episcopal church:

ASIS WEDNESDAY—March 10. At 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., in the chapel.

SUNDAY—Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m., except first Sunday in the month at 9:29 a. m. services held at 7:30 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 3:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. on the first Sunday in the month at 10:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12:10 p. m.

HOLY THURSDAY—The Annunciation, March 25. "Quiet Day" for women. Connected to the Rev. Theodore M. Butler of New Haven, Conn. at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Holy Communion, Monday, Tuesday and Saturday, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Friday 10:30 a. m. (Lenten) and 7:30 p. m. All in the chapel.

GOOD FRIDAY—April 5. At 10:30 a. m. a three hours service from 12:00 m. to 3:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. for the Jews at the morning service.

EASTER DAY—April 5. Holy Communion at 10:30 a. m. Morning prayer, sermon and Song of Praise at 10:30 a. m. Children's service at 11:30 a. m. Evening prayer and sermon 7:30 p. m.

Rev. J. F. Conover, the pastor, has issued a neat and appropriate circular regarding the Lenten season, from which we take the following:

HOW TO KEEP A GOOD MENT.

1. Have regular times for daily reading of Holy Scripture and for private prayer.
2. Practice self examination every day.
3. Attend as many of the services as you can. Select several that you will always attend. Bring some one with you.
4. Visit the sick, unfortunate and aged; relieve the poor; entreat the impenitent; persuade the lapsed; or do any other work for Christ you know would please Him.
5. Practice some form of self-denial, in eating, speech, food and drink, amusements and social gaiety.
6. If you have any special infirmity, temper or passion; any bad habit; or recurring temptation to sin, strive with unrelaxed earnestness to overcome it.
7. In everything cultivate a spirit of love.

Your Friend and Pastor,
J. F. CONOVER.

Christ Episcopal church and St. Paul's and St. Mary's Catholic churches will also observe Lent with special services.

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

In the morning the Rev. Martin E. Foster, D. D., of Chicago, spoke regarding the Chicago Theological seminary. He referred to young men intending to enter the ministry and spoke of the necessity that existed for a careful preparation. The discourse was an excellent one and showed the reverend gentleman to be an eloquent orator as well as an able thinker.

Mrs. F. B. Stacy held a bible reading in the evening her subject being the prophet Elijah. She spoke of the circumstances surrounding him and of his remarkable characteristics. She drew upon his life at some length, drawing many useful lessons from it. A large audience listened to the remarks and the congregation was evidently glad to welcome Mrs. Stacy back even though only for one night.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The service at this church last night was shortened somewhat, so that the congregation could attend the bible reading at the Congregational church. The pastor, the Rev. M. G. Dodge, D. D., preached both morning and evening, delivering two very interesting sermons. His evening subject was "Repentance," and was the second one in a series on the teachings of Christ. The speaker said that naturally one of the first things that Christ would dwell on in this world would be full of sin was repentance. Christ was here to save men, and no man can enter the kingdom of God who does not repent. No one is obliged to repent, but anyone who does not do so is worthy to consume when there is so much light in the land.

ALL SOULS CHURCH.

Yesterday morning Rev. Mr. Waiter, pastor of All Souls church, delivered his second lecture on the "Religious Poems of Tennyson." The audience was one of the largest ever assembled in this church and the lecture was one of the pastor's most able efforts, and his interesting remarks were listened to with the closest attention from beginning to ending.

THE CALEDONIA SOCIETY.

The Business Transacted at the Meeting Saturday-Afternoon.

The first regular meeting of the Rock County Caledonia Society was held Saturday afternoon in Good Temple's hall in the Court Street church block. The meeting was called to order about 2:30 p. m. by the president, Dr. Mills, in the chair.

Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved. By consent, the constitution and by-laws were read.

On motion of G. C. Skinner, the time for holding the quarterly meeting was changed from Saturday to Thursday.

President Mills presented the following amendment to the constitution, and on motion of Mr. Skinner, it was adopted:

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

The objects of this society shall be to celebrate the anniversary of Scotland's favorite bard, Robert Burns, and to encourage a more thorough acquaintance with his works; to gain a better knowledge of the Scottish authors and literature; to look after and aid any worthy brother Scotchman who has unfortunately met with poverty and want, and to promote a friendly and fraternal feeling among our countrymen.

By Adam Scott: That the clause requiring one-fifth of the entire membership, for a quorum be stricken out. Carried.

By C. G. Drummond: That the names of the following persons be added up as charter members: Archie Reid, William Zuill, David Zuill, David McLean, J. Geo. McLean, Jr., Peter McNea and John Richardson. Carried.

By Andrew Barless: That the secretary and treasurer be authorized to secure proper room for the future meetings of the society. Carried.

By Mr. Skinner: That two hundred copies of the constitution and by-laws of the society be printed in pamphlet form before the next meeting.

By Andrew Barless: That President Mills, Secretary Galbraith and John McCalloch be a committee to extend the society. Carried.

The president appointed the following gentlemen as an auditing committee: Andrew Barless, Andrew Scott and C. G. Drummond.

On motion adjourned.

HERNIX MATED.

ROSE-PARTNIDGE.

Wednesday evening March 3d, a marriage ceremony uniting Miss Fannie E. Partnidge, of the town of Plymouth, and Mr. Wm. M. Rose, of Avon, as bride and wife, took place at the residence of the bride's parents. At eight o'clock the wedding march was struck up by Miss Cora D. M. Stanley, accompanied by her brothers Byron and Frank. The bridal party entered, consisting of Miss Minnie Partnidge, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and Mr. Edw. M. Rose, brother of the groom, as groomsmen. The bride was richly attired in golden brown silk. The party took their places under an artistic evergreen yoke from which was suspended a white floral horse shoe. Rev. S. Luzz conducted the ceremony, uniting the two by the ring ceremony after which the friends of Mr. M. and Mrs. Rose showered the congratulations and best wishes on them. About one hundred and twenty-five sat down to a sumptuous wedding feast. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents. The newly wedded couple went immediately to their future home in Avon.

Entrepreneurs' Link.

Don't expect an advertisement to be fruit in one night.

Bread is the staff of human life, a advertising is the staff of business.

You can't eat enough in a week to live a year, and you can't advertise on the plan, either.

A thing worth doing is worth doing well. A thing worth advertising is worth advertising well.

The enterprising advertiser proves that he understands how to buy, because advertising he knows how to sell.

If you can arouse curiosity by an advertisement it's a great point gained. The fair sex don't hold all the curiosities in the world.

People who advertise only once in three months forget that most folks do not remember anything longer than about seven days.

Quitting advertising in dull times is like tearing out a dam because the water is low. Either plan will prevent good times from coming.

A constant dropping will wear a rock. Keep dropping your advertisements to the public and they will soon melt under it like rock salt.

Trying to do business without advertising is like winning at a pretty game through a pair of green goggles. You may know what you are doing, but one else does.

It is a mistake notion that a fine site in an eligible location, surrounded by attractive signs, is a superior advertisement; for the experience of most enterprising merchants is that it pays better to spend less in rent and more on advertising.

Enterprising people are beginning to learn the value of advertising the year round. The persistency of those who were not intimidated by the cry of "dull times", but keep their names ever before the public, will surely place them on the right side in the end.

A man's sign offers a mute invitation to those who pass his place of business; his circular can only reach those to whom personal attention is given; but his announcement in a newspaper goes into the highways and byways, finds its customers and compelling them to consider his arguments.—Detroit Free Press.

New Grocery House.

The newest enterprise on the east side of the river is the new grocery house of Dorrence & Rice located at No. 15 M. Street. Mr. Dorrence, the senior partner of the new firm, has been connected with the wholesale grocery house of Cook, Phillips & Wells, of Chicago, for many years. Mr. Rice, the junior member, for the past two years has represented the same house on the road, making it home in Janesville where he is well and favorably known. Both gentlemen are thoroughly familiar with the grocery business, and combine with their practical knowledge a genial courtesy, which will command respect and aid them generally in making a favorable acquaintance. They propose to do a cash business. Their goods are all fresh and
